

Training

BBA Advantage: offering useful, necessary, and enriching training.

BBA Financial Group's main objectif has always been to allow representatives to grow and to maintain their high level of knowledge. That's why every year, BBA develops a complete and diversified training program. Presented from September to May and in several regions of Québec, the training courses address different subjects that are essential to maintain the representatives' right of practice. BBA pays special attention to the possibility for the repressentatives to earn continuing education units (CEUs).

► All information on the BBA Advantages Program can be found at www.bba.qc.ca.

