BBA Advantage: fostering development with pertinent and modern tools.

BBA Financial Group is proud to assist representatives with their service offer. This way, they can count of a variety of tools that will make their information research easier. In particular, as partners, representatives can access various sales tools, forms, and software programs via the BBA Portal.

The internal e-magazine provides information on the industry's current interest topics. Moreover, BBA's presence on LinkedIn facilitates information sharing. BBA Financial Group even offers its representatives the possibility to refer to its advisory service in information technology.
